

pg retreat a gathering for families with profoundly gifted children

11th Annual PG Retreat!
Friday, July 1st – Tuesday, July 5th, 2011

Glen Eyrie Conference Center, Colorado Springs, Colorado

PG Retreat is an annual summer program organized by families of profoundly gifted children. PG Retreat brings our children together for shared connections and community. Although every child is unique and beautiful in his or her own way, profoundly gifted children often have a difficult time finding true peers within their day-to-day communities. Our gathering has a limited enrollment to provide an intimate opportunity to meet, learn, socialize, and yes, even play with other children who are developmentally advanced. Siblings and family members are welcome at this unique opportunity to connect with other PG kid families in a tranquil, serene

“Having a PG Child who struggles to fit in elsewhere may be what brings us to PG Retreat, but the camaraderie and acceptance felt by ALL members of the family is what keeps us coming back.” — WJC, parent

PG Retreat includes:

- guest speakers and discussion sessions for adults on raising and educating PG children;
- classes & activities for children, teens and adults;
- arts & crafts, games and exercise opportunities;
- buffet-style meals in a pleasant group setting;
- evening events (Recent retreats have included dance nights, a hilltop fireworks viewing hike, ice cream socials, family “Capture the Flag”, and the PGR talent show);
- nature trails for hiking and outdoor activities including orienteering and ropes courses; and
- plenty of opportunities to visit and connect in planned activities or just ‘hanging out’.

“Wow, I finally found someone who has read all the same books I have read!”
— LMR, Age 10

The early registration deadline is October 31, 2010
due to the popularity of this beautiful summer vacation spot.
